

FRIDAY, MARCH 1:

Please pray for the seven prison teams in New Zealand as they continue to lead eleven groups in five prisons. The government is making it harder and harder to continue these studies.

SATURDAY, MARCH 2:

Ask the Lord to open many new opportunities for Precept Ministries Scotland in 2019!

SUNDAY, MARCH 3:

Petition the Lord on behalf of the Southeast Brazil coordinators as they train adults, teens, and children. Pray for projects in Jaguariuna and for wisdom and guidance from the Lord as they expand their work to other cities.

MONDAY, MARCH 4:

Lift up our coordinators and area coordinators in Portugal as they reach and train more people in Inductive Bible Study. Pray the response will be more than they expect!

TUESDAY, MARCH 5:

Pray for the translation of materials into Bari, the local language of many refugees from South Sudan. Specifically ask that the South Sudan Bible Society will give us the authority needed to go ahead with the translations.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 6:

Go before the throne of grace on behalf of our partnership with the Pastors Discipleship Network in Uganda. Over 1,500 pastors were trained with Precept material in 2018. Pray more pastors will be effectively trained to teach God's Word and we'll have more visits and training sessions.

THURSDAY, MARCH 7

We currently work primarily in Southwest Nigeria. Ask the Lord to provide opportunities to grow Precept throughout the entire country.

FRIDAY, MARCH 8:

Please pray for the ENCOUNTER Student Conference in Chattanooga that kicks off today! Middle and high school students will be working through the 40-Minute study Fatal Distractions to learn how to conquer destructive temptations. Ask the Lord to reach everyone personally, and that they will leave hungering for Jesus and His Word.

SATURDAY, MARCH 9:

Pray for mentorship in Africa, that older leaders will actively equip, train, and help younger believers to start their own Bible studies.

SUNDAY, MARCH 10:

Lift up the ministry in Armenia, asking for growth. Please pray for more books to be translated into Armenian, resulting in the growth of small groups, children's ministry, and ministry to teens and families.

MONDAY, MARCH 11:

Today, ask God to open doors for us to train and minister among drug and alcohol addicted men and women in Belarus.

TUESDAY, MARCH 12:

Lift up the seminar in Szczytno, Poland, this month. Pray for those attending to be transformed by God's Word.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13:

Applications for EQUIP Boot Camp are due March 20! Ask God to continue drawing students to apply through the deadline and to give discernment to the Transform Student Ministries team as they read through applications. Pray He would begin preparing the hearts of all involved for the study of Judges this summer in Chattanooga.

THURSDAY, MARCH 14:

Ask God to increase the number of supporting partners so that more people can engage in relationship with God through knowing His Word and live out God's Word every day.

FRIDAY, MARCH 15:

Pray for the translation and printing of more Bible study materials in Myanmar so they can reach more families and children.

SATURDAY, MARCH 16:

Ask for protection for those attending the Institute in Lebanon, and for traveling mercies for the team coming from Syria.

SUNDAY, MARCH 17:

Pray for protection for those sharing the gospel in Nepal since it is now forbidden. Also pray for the students traveling to attend training.

MONDAY, MARCH 18:

Please pray for translation of D4Y materials in Mongolia.

TUESDAY, MARCH 19:

Pray for the ministry among the Quechuas in Bolivia so that they continue training leaders and increase the number of study groups.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20:

Ask the Lord to take control in Cuba, that political changes and laws about gay marriage and sexual freedom that don't favor the Evangelical church will be overturned. Many pastors fear persecution will soon begin when these laws are enacted.

THURSDAY, MARCH 21:

Pray for translators so the Quechua people in Bolivia and Peru can have material in their own language.

FRIDAY, MARCH 22:

Pray for all who are attending the Essentials of Inductive Bible Study training workshop in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, today. They are being equipped to engage in relationship with God through studying His Word! Pray this will help them to come to know God in a deeper way and walk closely with Him.

SATURDAY, MARCH 23:

Please pray for the formation of youth teams in each country of South America.

SUNDAY, MARCH 24:

Lift up the coordinator in the southern region of Mexico, for protection as he travels from village to village and for him to make the right contacts as he begins 40-Minute classes. Also pray for follow-up after training with the pastor of a mega church in Tuxtla Gutierrez.

MONDAY, MARCH 25:

Go to the Lord with the request from Peru that God will touch the hearts and open doors with the leadership and pastors of different denominations so that they will allow us to start study groups and train people in their churches.

TUESDAY, MARCH 26:

Ask the Lord for wisdom for the Leadership Team in Chattanooga as they consider many key projects to grow the reach of Precept Ministries.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 27:

Pray on behalf of all Bible study group leaders as they lead effective discussions that will seal truth in the hearts of their students.

THURSDAY, MARCH 28:

Pray for the USA Board of Directors who are responsible to the Lord for all we do, that their wisdom will guide our efforts in the coming year.

FRIDAY, MARCH 29:

Please pray for the workshops being held in Duncan, British Columbia, Canada, today and tomorrow. Pray for the students and leaders as they study God's Word together and learn new Bible study skills.

SATURDAY, MARCH 30:

Training continues in Duncan, British Columbia, Canada, today. Continue lifting up students and leaders.

SUNDAY, MARCH 31:

Pray for writing and editing new Bible study courses that will help people engage in relationship with God.
